Hilton Grand Vacations Inc. (NYSE: HGV) is recognized as a leading global timeshare company. With headquarters in Orlando, Florida, HGV develops, markets and operates a system of brand-name, high-quality vacation ownership resorts in select vacation destinations. The company also manages and operates two innovative club membership programs: Hilton Grand Vacations Club® and The Hilton Club®, providing exclusive exchange, leisure travel and reservation services for more than 305,000 club members. For more information, visit <http://www.hgv.com> and www.hiltongrandvacations.com.

Mark Wang serves as Hilton Grand Vacations' President, Chief Executive Officer, and a member of its Board of Directors. He first joined Hilton in 1999 as Managing Director of Hawaii and Asia Pacific for HGV and held a series of senior management positions prior to being appointed President in March 2008.

During Mr. Wang's time as President of HGV, he served on Hilton's executive committee as Executive Vice President and held a dual role as President of Global Sales for the hotel division from 2013 to 2014. He also led Hilton's Asia-Pacific Islander Team Member Resource Group.

While leading HGV, the company experienced consecutive growth every year, while transforming the business to a capital-efficient model. With more than 35 years of industry experience, Mr. Wang has earned a reputation as an innovator who brought new, highly effective sales and marketing techniques to the industry. In 1987, he introduced the U.S. timeshare product to the Japanese market.

Prior to joining HGV, Mr. Wang co-founded three independent timeshare companies, where he served as President and COO of each.

Mr. Wang was the 2017-2018 Chairman of the American Resort Development Association (ARDA) and previously served as Vice Chairman of ARDA Hawaii.

Gordon Gurnik serves as HGVs' Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Gurnik joined HGV in 2018, where he leads Business Operations, Shared Services, New Product Development, Information Technology Services, and Sales and Marketing – Asia.

Mr. Gurnik's responsibilities at HGV include working in partnership with the executive team to coordinate business development, process implementation, and information technology deployment while ensuring alignment with HGV's strategic priorities for all new initiatives.

Prior to joining HGV, Mr. Gurnik served as President of RCI, a worldwide leader in vacation exchange and travel services and the largest exchange network in the world. While at RCI, he was instrumental in advancing the company's signature products while also leading RCI's strategic direction, operations and growth with over 3.8 million member families and 4,300 vacation ownership resorts.

Mr. Gurnik holds a bachelor's degree in management from Purdue University. He serves on the board of directors for Christel House International, a non-profit organization that supports impoverished children throughout the world, and is a member of the American Resort Development Association's (ARDA) Board of Directors.

Charles Corbin serves as Executive Vice President, Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel, and Chief Development Officer of HGV, a role he assumed in January 2017 following a six-year stint as a senior lawyer in Hilton's legal department. In addition, Mr. Corbin has served as Chief Development Officer of HGV since October 2017.

Following a successful career as a trial lawyer and partner in a boutique commodities and securities litigation law firm based in Washington, D.C., Mr. Corbin was an in-house lawyer for nearly 20 years. With 35 years of legal experience, he has earned a reputation as an innovative legal thinker and dynamic leader who brings a commercial perspective and risk-adjusted approach to providing practical advice and counsel to business partners and enterprises in a variety of industries.

Prior to joining Hilton, Mr. Corbin served as in-house counsel to Sunrise Senior Living, Inc. and The Mills Corporation. He holds a juris doctorate from the University of Dayton School of Law and a bachelor's degree from The Citadel.
