Ted Manley is a founder and principal of Manley Deas Kochalski and its related companies. Ted leads MDK's Strategic Planning, Relationship Management and Business Development groups, which are focused on building deeper client relationships by leveraging technology in the management of defaulted portfolios. Ted's legal background includes corporate structural and transactional work as well as representing creditors in bankruptcy and related state court proceedings. His bankruptcy experience ranges from routine matters involving servicers of credit card, automobile and mortgage assets to more complex Chapter 11 workout and liquidation matters.

Ted serves as chair of the Board of Trustees of the Wellington School and on the Advisory Boards of the Military Warriors Support Foundation and Omicelo Cares.

Built on Technology, Designed for Service

MDK is a leading default litigation law firm that provides a full complement of services to several Fortune 500 companies including many of the world's largest financial institutions, mortgage servicers, commercial lenders, real estate developers, resort developers, automobile finance companies and title insurers. Through the guidance of its innovative lawyers, the direction of its professional management team and the capabilities of its cutting edge technology, MDK combines the legal capacity of a top-rated law firm with the regulatory compliance of a financial institution.

Unprecedented Legal Process

At MDK, we believe in redefining the typical attorney-client experience. From unrivaled technology to unwavering client commitment, our approach is a model of quality and efficiency.

That's because we think like business partners and attorneys. We carefully consider each individual legal matter that is entrusted to us, but analyze the total matters for trends, opportunities and risk— something we call portfolio management. Taking the time to learn the nuances and needs of each client means we can provide superior solutions and service from every angle. And it's all backed by our unparalleled technology, ensuring that every client receives above-the-bar support and insights.

Architects of Innovation

MDK's innovative business approach and technology-driven processes led to the development of its proprietary platform, Casee. Designed to streamline processes, Casee elevates MDK's technological capabilities and allows the firm's legal experts to create customized workflows while remaining efficient. With headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, and offices in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Florida, Indiana and Kentucky, our sophisticated technology makes it possible to span both borders and industries.

Living Our Values

Voted one of the best places to work in central Ohio, we have created a culture that embodies our values of education, diversity, health and community while developing and retaining top talent. With a distinguished group of attorneys and legal assistants working alongside sophisticated business professionals, our workforce is the heart of MDK. We are dedicated to creating an inclusive environment in which we benefit from multiple perspectives and life experiences. At MDK, our diversity is our strength.
