

www.timesharesonly.com

Sam Pontius

President, Timeshares Only and Fidelity Real Estate

sam.pontius@timesharesonly.com

Timeshares Only (TSO) is a pioneer of the secondary market and operates the leading online timeshare marketplace, and is dedicated to connecting timeshare owners with quality buyers and renters. As one of the first legitimate timeshare resale companies, representatives for TSO make a difference by fulfilling their mission of always putting the customer first, providing the best quality services, and being the beacon of the timeshare resale industry. Timeshares Only has earned an "A+" rating and full accreditation from the Better Business Bureau because of their dedication and attention to customer needs, a rare feat for resale service providers.

With over 25 years of experience navigating the secondary market, Timeshares Only provides resale solutions for the entire industry—major developers included. Their strong relationships with major branded developers have gained attention among industry peers. Timeshares Only provides revolutionary resale solutions that are bridging the gap between the primary and secondary markets. By working together, they are able to better serve timeshare owners, buyers, renters, and the industry as a whole, benefiting all parties.

Since their inception in 1994, TSO has been a trailblazer of the timeshare resale industry. Timeshares Only has also evolved to offer innovative products and cutting-edge marketing technologies to meet the needs of their valued customers. Their team is comprised of unique individuals that strive to be authentic and add value to every service they provide. Every Timeshares Only team member follows a strict code of ethics and celebrates success by putting the customer first. What's more, Timeshares Only has built a network of like-minded brands to support all of the needs of timeshare owners and developers like no one else can.

Sam Pontius serves as President for both Timeshares Only and its sister company, Fidelity Real Estate. He is responsible for leading the development and execution of both companies' global strategies. Mr. Pontius also oversees operations, ensuring the strategic direction and overall performance is in line with our fundamental goal of legitimizing the timeshare resale market. He has extensive experience in club development, owner services, asset management, acquisitions, capital light/fee-based projects, strategic alliances, sales and marketing, association and property management. Mr. Pontius has held corporate positions at SPM Resorts, Hilton Grand Vacations and Orange Lake Resorts. From his unique perspective and understanding of both sides of the vacation ownership world, Mr. Pontius is able to drive the company's vision and execute company decisions and strategy, playing a heavy part in where the company is today.

TimesharesOnly™

